Letter No 6997 3/8/03, from Mr E. R. Subrayer, Compt applying for 3 months' priv. leave, preparatory to retirement

Mr E. R. Subrayer, Compt'r, applies for 3 months' privilege leave, preparatory to retirement.

The leave is requested to be granted in continuation of either the approaching Dasara holidays (i.e. from 7th Octr 03), or of the next Xmas holidays (i.e. from 4th Janry 04), whichever may be convenient in the interests of public service. (Leave certificate is dated)

He also requests that Govt may investigate if there are any Govt or Palace claims against him personally & have them adjusted, if any such be found

The general rules governing cases of voluntary retirement are embodied in Arts 311, 312 & 312 A of the M. S. Regns. The two latter Articles provide for the grant of a retiring pension to an officer belonging to the Mysore Civil Service, who voluntarily retires after completing qualifying Superior Service of 25 years.

(Mr Subrayer was born on 30-1-49 and he joined the Service on 23-6 75. He attains the age of 55 years on 30-1-04.)

The Compt'r will have completed a qualifying service of 28 years & 8 months, on the 23rd of the Current month & he is regarded as belonging

I do not see anything in the papers to explain the reasons for Mr. Subroyer offering to retire at this sta-ge . No doubt he completes his 55th year in January next; but the Rules do not require the retire ent of an Office simply because he happ ns to have com-pleted his 55th year f age unless the Governemnt considers him inefficint and his retention undesirable in the in-terests of the public service . I do not see from the past history of Mr.Su-broyer's services or from the result of the prolonged and t ough scrutiny held into the finances of the State by Mr. Kiernander that there is anything to lead Mr.Subroyer to infer that the Government of His Highness would wish to dispense with his services on his c completing his 55th year On the contr-ry I believe that Mr.Kiernander has h had every reason to be satisfied with Mr.Subroyer's work and that he has re-corded his appreciation of the satisfa-tory manner in which he has discharged his onerous and responsible duties . And I have also been all along under the impression that Mr.Subroyer has don nothing to forfeit the confidence and good opinion of the Government of His Highness Under these circumstances

I do not think that we should accept his resignation without further considera-tion

If we decide to accept his resignation I am not aware of any body in our service who can replace him and who has the experince and training neces-sary to do justice to the responsible position of State Comptroller Even if a qualified outsider is brought in it will be some months before he will have acquired local experince and knowledge of the requirements of the Mysore State, necessary for the discharge of his duties For these reasons I would advice Govern-ment to reply to Mr. Subroyer stating that Government have full confidence in him , and asking him to reconsider his resignation

In case it is settled that Mr. Subroyer should go I would suggest that the successor the Govt. have in view may be appointed on probation and may be placed under training with Mr. Su-broyer for a
